LEGISLATIVE HISTORY........................................................................................................ 12
Section 33-1-1. Title.

This Ordinance shall be entitled the “FSST Tobacco Product Control Authority Ordinance” (herein, the “Ordinance”).

Section 33-1-2. Authority.

The Executive Committee of the Flandreau Santee Sioux Tribe enacts this Ordinance pursuant to the authority vested in it by Article III, Section (3) and VIII, Section 1(g) of the Tribe’s Constitution, to appoint boards as may be deemed necessary and to charter subordinate economic organizations for economic purposes, and to delegate to such organizations, or to any subordinate boards or officials of the Tribe, powers of the Tribe.

Section 33-1-3. Findings.

(a) The Tribe, acting through the Executive Committee and designated agencies of the Tribal government, exercises its inherent sovereignty to promulgate and execute ordinances governing and regulating the conduct of all person on the Reservation.

(b) The Constitution of the Tribe confirms the sovereign duty and responsibility of the government established by the Tribe’s members to exercise the right of local self-government and to promote the welfare of the Tribe.

(c) These rights include establishing subordinate governmental authorities for the economic purpose of benefiting the general welfare of the tribal community.

(d) The Tribe has a long history of providing benefits to the tribal community through exercising its inherent sovereign authority. This inherent authority includes Tribal tax and regulatory authority, exclusive of states, of tribal-value-added tobacco products sold within Indian country.

(e) The benefits received through subordinate Tribal authorities exercising the Tribe’s inherent tax and regulatory sovereign authority serves the social, economic, educational, and health needs of the tribal community, helps advance the sovereignty and cultural integrity of the Tribe, and supports those services found in the Flandreau Santee Sioux Tribal Tax Act, Title 23, section 1.3.

(f) The Tribe, and not the federal government, is in the best position to determine and meet the needs of the Tribe’s members. Services provided by the Federal government to the Tribe are often inadequate to meet these needs. Further, due to the nature of Tribal land holdings, the Tribe does not have a real-property tax base to help fund essential governmental services.

(g) The Executive Committee is committed to enhance the Tribe’s economic self-sufficiency and self-determination through the exercise of the Tribe’s inherent sovereign tax and regulatory authority.
